What more delightful way to celebrate any occasion -- or no occasion, for that matter -- than with the classic pairing of two sublime tastes: champagne and caviar? Champagne's effervescence complements the delicacy of the roe, making this the perfect combination. Along with lovely photographs, a New York Times food columnist tells the story of these two unique delicacies, and reveals the secrets of just how and why they work so elegantly together.

Cooking involves chemical reactions that can make food smell and taste better. However, the same process that is responsible for creating the aroma, flavor, palatability, color, and taste of grilled and seared foods has also been linked to the development of chronic degenerative diseases. The Maillard reaction produces advanced glycation end produc

The United States of America, the European Union, and Canada have formed the Alliance of AmEuropa the largest and richest common market in history. Debonair American Captain Michael Beck, alias Eagle, and beautiful English Lieutenant Elizabeth Bailey, alias Irish Cream, have been selected by the Secret Intelligence Agency of AmEuropa (SIA) in conjunction with the CIA and the British MI6 to form the Alliance's elite Special SIA Team XXX. Their mission, working undercover as Peace Envoys, is to protect the Alliance and its member countries from the perilous forces at work to destroy it. International espionage, culture, love affairs, and betrayal fill this intriguing and introspective thriller set among the cultural wonders of Europe.

Russian Caviar, a symbol of power and luxury, is a parable of life and death connected with agony and love. It was the Red Army delivering this delicacy after the last days of war beside devastation, rape, and death. It needed time to overcome those experiences of horror and to find a way out into life and freedom again. The remaining desire to get a chance in life to have caviar on the table without a bitter taste came finally true when love replaced all trauma with caviar as the stimulating centerpiece. This wonderful mental rainbow is the parable of love—the only alternative for happiness in life with continuation in eternity. From the deadly bombardment of Dresden in 1945 to freedom in Berlin in 1955 and the love story in London in 1961, one can sympathize with the excitement of these days. Russian Caviar is a love story par excellence. It happened on a blue summer day in London in an unsurpassable development with Russian caviar and champagne on the table. The passion of love changed our life with so much happiness—enough for a lifetime and eternity. Grand merci Florence – Je t aime.
