Ed W F Bynum, Roy Porter Routledge, £150, pp 1806 ISBN 0-415-04771-4 We should not ignore our history, but how can we learn about it when there is so much other pressure on our time? One of the most frustrating things about the history of medicine is the lack of any single overview that does the subject justice. The standard books that usually sit at the dusty end of the library do all the ...
