sexy standalone novel. A complete STAND-ALONE follow-up to Kahlen's smash hit, Trading Yesterday! Outwardly, my life was rocking. As a sportscaster at ESPN, I've traveled the world, attending the most prestigious sporting events, and meeting all sorts of famous people. I have great friends, and women whenever I want them, but my I miss the little girl I helped raise and still adore. My heart was broken when my best friend came back to step in as her dad, but at least my career was on the uptick. That was until Missy Ellington sailed into my network intent on stealing the promotion I'd been working like a dog to land. There was no way I'd let her get in the way of a new job would that would allow me to spend more time with my little Remi. Missy was beautiful and smart, but her relentless ambition and cool demeanor were off-putting as hell. She had an underlying vulnerability that hinted she was not all she

When I discovered Missy's single-minded ferociousness to succeed was driven by a painful past and a little boy named Dylan, The protector in me kicked in and I was drawn to her even more... like a moth to a flame.
