Gospel Classics reflects the importance of hymns and gospel songs in the musical fabric of Mark Hayes's life. The skillful arranger has artistically "breathed new life" into the well-known gospel songs included in this collection for advanced pianists. Church musicians and worshippers alike are certain to take great enjoyment in experiencing these fresh new settings and lush harmonies.

A seamless transition between the two tunes adds to the appeal of this accessible and memorable arrangement. Send your congregants home full of peace and joy with this lovely piece.

He's never had the courage to love anyone...The only thing Otis Miller has ever wanted to be is a doctor and he wants to be the best. A surprise talk with his Aunt Eleanor days before his twenty-first birthday leads to a visit from his grandfather's lawyer and the discovery that he is the heir to a large fortune. With all the papers signed, Otis heads to Chicago to follow his dream.After graduating from Jenner Medical School, Otis goes to the mine he owns in Colorado to see how things are and to provide medical care for everyone in town. He finds horrible working conditions and learns to make difficult decisions that will be best for all.Will Otis learn to let God cover him in the depths of His love? Can Otis hide in God's presence whenever he doesn't know where to go next?Note: 50% of my income from this series will go to the World Orphans organization.
