Jul 5, 2020 - Life on the farm is a quintessential topic of study for preschoolers. Many kids, of course, grow up on farms. These kids have everyday opportunities to learn about life on the farm. But even city- and suburb-dwelling kids like my own should learn about farms because it gives them a connection to their current food supply. Plus, kids seem to really enjoy learning about farm ...

The Farm contains three units on literature selections, as well as activities that extend across the curriculum to language arts, math, social studies, music, art, and life skills.

Invites young readers to learn the numbers one to ten using simple text, tactile surfaces, and illustrations of farm animals.

By the big red barn In the great green field, There was a pink pig Who was learning to squeal. There were horses and sheep and goats and geese--and a jaunty old scarecrow leaning on his hoe. And they all lived together by the big red barn. In joyous and exuberant Pictures, Felicia Bond lovingly evokes Margaret Wise Brown's simple, rhythmic text about the cycle of a day on a farm, where a family of animals peacefully plays and sleeps. In the barnyard there are roosters and cows, horses and goats, and a pink piglet who is learning to squeal. Margaret Wise Brown's lulling story about a day in the life of a barnyard is now available as a sturdy board book. Felicia Bond's atmospheric illustrations add to the tranquil simplicity of this story.

All the farm animals are where they should be, clucking and mucking, mewing and cooing, except for the missing goose. On board pages.

Farm animals wonder who is in the shed making all the noise

Mrs Wishy-Washy fills her tub with her animals and then washes them. Suggested level: junior.

The horse loves hay, the chickens need feed, the geese munch on corn, the hogs devour slop, the dog eats treats, but the cow loves COOKIES? With an original twist on the ordinary barnyard book, the latest read-aloud from bestselling author Karma Wilson is a clever exploration of a curious incident on the farm. As the farmer makes his rounds each day, most of the animals chew on the foods a young reader would expect. But when it's time to feed the cow, she feasts on a special treat. Wilson's signature style and Marcellus Hall's spirited watercolors will delight children on and off the farm because when it comes down to it, who doesn't love milk and cookies?

The Fox is after Rosie, but Rosie doesn't know it. Unwittingly, she leads him into one disaster after the other, each funnier than the last. To enjoy Rosie's walk as much as Rosie does, just look inside!

Tired of being washed by Mrs. Wishy-Washy, a cow, pig, and duck leave her farm and head for the city.

The quirky, hilarious farmyard tale that started it all from New York Times bestselling duo of Doreen Cronin and Betsy Lewin! Now the inspiration for a new Christmas special, CLICK, CLACK, MOO: Christmas on the Farm. Farmer Brown has a problem. His cows like to type. All day long he hears Click, clack, moo. Click, clack, moo. Click, clack, moo. But Farmer Brown's problems get bigger when his cows start leaving him notes! Listen in on the fun as a bunch of literate cows turn Farmer Brown's farm upside down!
