After reading the first volume, it's safe to say that this will fill One Piece fans' cravings for more content. One Piece: Ace's Story tells the tale of Ace's early years at sea and the formation of the Spade Pirates. Interestingly, the novel is narrated not by Ace, but rather his subordinate Deuce.

1. Romance Dawn. The first few pages establish the titular treasure One Piece, the golden age of piracy, and introduce protagonist Luffy D. Monkey. Luffy promptly endears himself to the reader by stabbing himself in the face. This isn't the hill I'll die on or anything, but I'm consistently surprised by how violent this opening chapter is.
