there are chances that you might find the title above a bit disturbing. Because for many people in the world – especially in my part of the world – the word “ capitalism ” means nothing other than greed, exploitation or injustice. However, if capitalism merely means an economic system of private property, free enterprise and free markets, then there would be nothing “ un-Islamic ” about it, as the economic history of the ...

Capitalism and Islam - Wikipedia

In this sense the rise of Islamic fundamentalism is an expression of the impasse of capitalism in the region and the need for the oppressed masses to find a way out. Were Islamic fundamentalism to come to power in any of the countries where it is now developing as a force, the most likely case being Algeria, it would not solve any of the economic and social problems facing the masses.

“ The Fall of Capitalism and the Rise of Islam ” provides a critical analysis of the current financial crisis in the US and the world at large. The collapse of financial institutions, the crash of the housing market, the evaporation of trillions of dollars, the creation of virtual unreal wealth, and the decline of productivity are symptoms of the potential failure of the ideology of capitalism.
